Pen Message by the Association Secretary

"Literature speaks the language of the imagination and the study of Literature is supposed to train and improve the imagination" – Northrop Fyre.

The art of literature lies behind its imaginary creators. English language proves its uniqueness by bringing many scholars and creators for its literature. As an international language, English attracts the individuals and influences many writers to attain their peak of imagination by reading and speaking the language. By appreciating the creative talents and mind blowing performances of the non-native speakers in India we provide the platform for their growing talents.

This Newsletter ASC-LIT-CHRONICLES explores the armour of English Department for the academic year 2023-24. The achievements, activities and winning moments of each individual in the department has been carefully crafted here. As the Secretary of English Literary Association I am proudly presenting this Newsletter with immense pleasure and I wish the future creators of the department to grow consistently to achieve the peak of Literature.
